Need an engaging speaker?

Invite Dr. Linda Fortune,

Northwest author,

For a very special event

To businesses, organizations, and community groups:

One of the ways that we cope with the difficulties of life, especially during hard times, is to maintain a sense of balance, humor, and optimism. Linda will bring laughter, add lightness, and stimulate you to think and feel as she shares about her cat, the understandings gained through writing Regal, and how animals enhance our very experience of being, adding much richness to our lives. Linda will share some new things that will joggle your mind and expand your awareness.

Engage Linda for a free, uplifting, and informative talk for your business and/or group. Linda is committed to sharing her deepened awareness about the value of our animal friends. The beautiful hardcover gift book of Regal will be available for those interested. Your group may also want to consider sponsoring Linda as a visiting author in a school that does not have an active PTA that normally supports these kinds of experiences for children.

About Linda and contact information:

- Professional educator/counselor
- Author of Regal and www.catacumen.com
- Engaging speaker
- Advocate for children and for animals
